ABOUT THE COMMUNITY: You will find Pendleton at the base of the Blue Mountains in Eastern Oregon, an agriculturally-based rural community that is an outdoor enthusiast and sportsman's paradise! The region boasts hunting, fishing, skiing, snowshoeing, cycling, hiking, and many other recreational activities. You'll find a thriving arts culture that supports a symphony, an Art Center, Community Theater, Historical Museum, and other culturally rich attractions in Pendleton, Oregon.

Pendleton has a population of just over 17,000 and offers a vibrant community with a beautiful scenic river walkway running right through the center of town. With over 20 parks, downtown shopping with many unique makers from hand-thrown pottery to custom-made hats, as well as a nice selection of locally owned restaurants offering everything from pho to a nice ribeye steak.

We are proud of our school district which provides diverse opportunities for students in preparation for their lives after high school. We offer four elementary schools, one middle school, one comprehensive high school, and one alternative high school as well as a single district-wide early learning center for pre-K. In addition, we are the host to Nixya'awii Charter School which serves students on the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation.

Our community is known for our famous Pendleton Round-Up, which takes place the second full week in September each year. We also host a large number of summer events and concerts that attract thousands of visitors each year. If you'd like to live in a region offering all four seasons, a town that rolls out the welcome mat to visitors, and a City that is implementing growth while working every day to enhance community livability through safety and a sense of community, Pendleton could be your fit!
